

Photography Release Form

I understand that the staff of HeartPrints Center for Early Education will take photographs of my child during classes and on field trips throughout the year.

These photographs may be used to share with parents directly, share with other families within Heart Prints, used for marketing and advertising, and social media.

No email copies of class photographs will be distributed to parents unless their child is the only child depicted in the photographs or unless all parents of the children in a photograph have given their permission for email distribution.

No photographs of children attending Heart Prints will be released to news media or used for purposes other than those mentioned within this release form without the expressed written permission from the parents.
