CAMP THEMES

June 7-10

Space Camp

Future astronomers and astronauts will enjoy exploring the world of outer space. We will study the planets in our solar system and learn about vehicles that fly into space. We will pay particular attention to our own moon and the changes we see at night. Children's imaginations will be sparked by materials from the Smithsonian Air and Space Museum.

June 14-17

Ocean Camp

Let's drive under the sea to find the creatures that lurk below. Children will participate in various water experiments to learn about the ocean and learn about various sea animals.

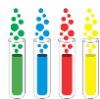

June 21-24

Art Camp

This camp is specifically designed for budding artists. Each day the children will learn about an artist and the techniques he/she used to create glorious masterpieces. Throughout the week, children will have opportunities to express their ideas and emotions through music, movement and art. Please wear clothes that can get messy.

June 28 - July 1

Chemistry Camp

All budding scientists will enjoy this week as we create one crazy concoction after another. Each day we will conduct experiments that focus on everyday chemistry. The messier the better in this camp, so do not wear your favorite shirt!

July 5-8

Safari Camp

We will strap on our binoculars and safari hat each day for our journey through the lands of Africa. We will move like the animals and learn their way of communicating. Discovering new facts about safari animals each day, we will also learn their names in Swahili. The children will have fun playing animal games outside and each child will make an animal representation of their own choosing.

July 12-15

Weather Camp

It's Raining, It's Pouring... During this camp the children will have lots of fun gaining a better understanding of how our weather systems work. An indoor snowball fight and snow cone snack will be an exciting part of our week. We will conduct plenty of science experiments this week as well.

July 19-22

Culture Camp

Let's take a journey around the globe. Our young geographers will practice foreign language, play games customary for young children in other countries and celebrate various cultural traditions throughout this fun week!

July 26-29

Butterfly Camp

We are going on a bug hunt! This camp will be spent exploring and learning about different bugs in our environment. Children will hopefully be able to experience the metamorphosis of monarch butterflies from our very own certified wildlife garden. We will learn the anatomy and fun facts about various critters, play some buggy games and create butterfly art.
